With the change in calendar, changes happen everywhere. And good parents see to the changes that happen in their kids. Dear parents, no change happens on its own, it is made to happen. When you become the role models for your children, they change for better. Every word, movement and action of yours has its effect on them. Therefore, being a parent and raising children is something of ultimate responsibility that cannot be taken lightly. We are sure that you will continue holding this responsibility efficaciously year after year as you have always been doing. Being considerate, I would like to recommend a few suggestions.

- ❖ Ensure healthy nutritious meals and 7-8 hour sleep at regular times to keep your wards healthy, energized and have better immunity.
- ❖ Recognize and respect your ward's unique individual talents. Don't expect them to mirror your personality, rather let them develop one of their own.
- ❖ You cannot walk for your children, but you must walk beside them, like a friend, watching and guiding their steps.
- ❖ Develop a cordial relationship. Win their faith and confidence. You should be the ONE to whom they rush first of all in every moment of pain and pleasure.

With the New Year come new hopes, new strength and new thoughts. Dear Students, New Year has opened like the blank pages of a note-book in front of you. So, write the story of your success on these pages. Never focus on the failures of yesterday, start today with positive thoughts and expectations. Remember, no one can go back and make a brand new start, but anyone can start from now and make a brand new ending.

- ❖ You will never win if you never begin.
- ❖ Break your complex overwhelming tasks into small manageable tasks and then start on the first one.
- ❖ Remember, learning never exhausts the mind. Cramming does.
- ❖ Have faith in God, your parents, teachers and above all in yourself.
