Planet First: BCM School's Earth Day Celebration Inspires All

Ludhiana, April 22, 2025 - BCM School, Chandigarh Road, came alive with colours, creativity, and consciousness as students across all wings celebrated Earth Day with spirited participation. The Foundational Stage turned blue for the day, symbolising the Earth's water bodies. Nursery kids created Earth-themed collages, LKG students used handprints to shape the planet, and UKG designed balloon Earth models adorned with floral cut-outs—each activity nurturing early awareness. In the Primary Wing, students transformed waste into wonders. From recycled bottle crafts to eco-friendly pen stands and badges, the young creators learned the joy of sustainability through hands-on art. The Middle Wing merged Earth Day with Literary Week. Class VI shared stories on nature, Class VII expressed awareness through posters, while Class VIII showcased imaginative bangle art with a message. As part of Literary Week celebrations and Earth day, the Senior Wing brought depth to the day with spontaneous extempore speeches on critical environmental themes. Students also wrote heartfelt personal pledges for the Earth Day Pledge Wall, affirming their role as young changemakers.

Words That Inspire: Day 4 of Literary Week Shines Bright

The fourth day of Literary Week at BCM School was a celebration of ideas, imagination, and artistic expression. In the PAH, the TED Talk Competition brought together 14 confident speakers who captivated the audience with their thought-provoking insights on diverse topics. Their eloquence and originality left a lasting impression. Meanwhile, creativity flowed across classrooms during the Bookmark Designing Activity, where around 330 students participated with enthusiasm. Each bookmark reflected unique literary themes, blending art with the love for reading. Day 4 beautifully balanced the power of spoken word and visual storytelling, continuing the Literary Week's mission to nurture expression in every form

Thought of the Day

The smallest step in the right direction can turn out to be the biggest step of your life. Keep going, even if it's one step at a time
