"Cinema has the power to unite people, to make them laugh and cry together, regardless of their differences." - A. R. Rehman

A soulful solo performance fills the room, as the student's voice resonates with emotion and passion, captivating the audience.

With expressive gestures and silent humor, students captivate the audience in a thought-provoking mime performance.

Students unite in harmony, singing the school song with pride and passion, reflecting the spirit and values of their institution.

Thank you for coming!

We would like to express our sincerest gratitude for celebrating international film festival with us.
