

Session report

2024-25

It is about putting effort
and ideas into action.

Content Index

01

Orientation to school cinema for teachers

02

School cinema- with or without medals

03

Workshop on bullying

04

Understanding puberty- a journey of change

05

Women empowerment

06

Empowering minds- a students call for change

07

Honesty is the best policy

08

Learn and make cinema

09

SCIFF 2024

10

Close calls

11

Epic echoes

12

Women empowerment

Orientation to school cinema for teachers

School cinema- With or without medals

To develop skills to compete fairly, celebrate others' success and focus on self improvement.

conducted for class III.

Workshop on bullying

To make students understand what bullying is, its forms, and its impact on others.

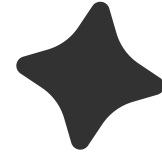

conducted for class Vth.

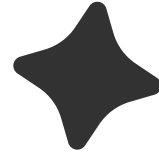

Understanding puberty- a journey of change

To foster healthy relationships and navigating online spaces safely.

Conducted for class IX.

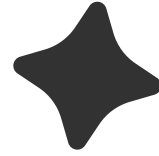

Women Empowerment

Addressing the issue of eve teasing and its impact on mental health and personal wellbeing.

Empowering minds- a students call for change

Highlighted the importance of breaking stereotypes, fostering equality and encouraging everyone to be the agents of change.

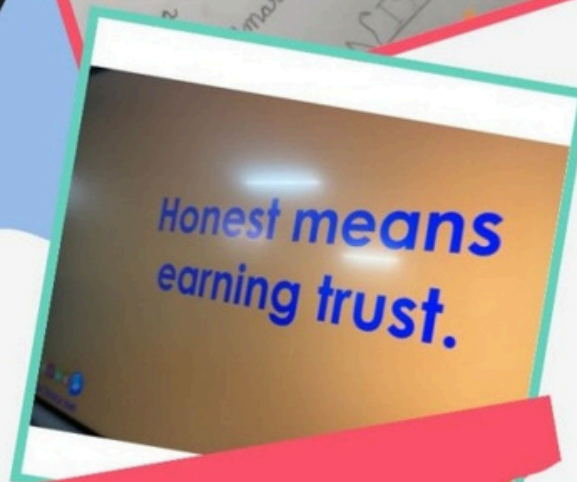

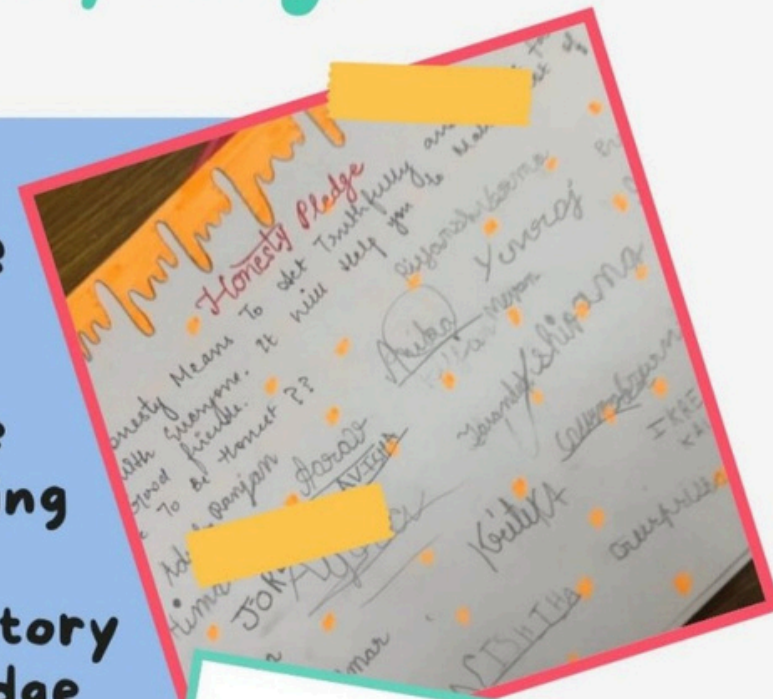

HONESTY

Is the best policy

Honesty Pledge

Class I students were psychoeducated regarding value- Honesty. They were shown social story followed by honesty pledge Honesty song was the fun to learn and sing.

Sharmishtha Tripathi
Counsellor

Honesty is the best policy

To make truthful choices and practice being honest.

conducted for class I.

Learn and make cinema

To enhance students artistic, emotional and technical capabilities

hosts

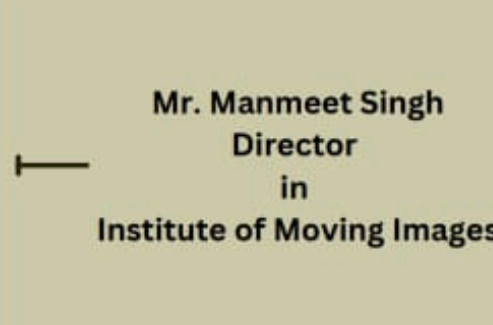

SCIFF 2024 SCHOOL CINEMA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

Welcoming of chief guest for the inauguration of School Cinema International Film Festival

Ms Pawan Johal
Actress

Mr. Manmeet Singh
Director
in Institute of Moving Images

"Cinema has the power to unite people, to make them laugh and cry together, regardless of their differences." - A. R. Rehman

A soulful solo performance fills the room, as the student's voice resonates with emotion and passion, captivating the audience.

With expressive gestures and silent humor, students captivate the audience in a thought-provoking mime performance.

Students unite in harmony, singing the school song with pride and passion, reflecting the spirit and values of their institution.

Close calls :Life lessons

To enhance and boost students's speaking skills and encouraging self expression.

Epic echoes

Understanding Ramayan through the lens of mental health.

Women Empowerment

Understanding how harrasment of women
creates an impact on mental health of women

