I. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follows :-

A lamb was grazing with a flock of sheep one day. She soon found some sweet grass at the edge of the field. Farther and farther she went, away from the others.

She was enjoying herself so much that she did not notice a wolf coming nearer to her. However, when it pounced on her, she was quick to start pleading, "Please, please don't eat me yet. My stomach is full of grass. If you wait a while, I will taste much better."

The wolf thought that was a good idea, so he sat down and waited. After a while, the lamb said, "If you allow me to dance, the grass in my stomach will be digested faster." Again the wolf agreed. While the lamb was dancing, she had a new idea. She said, "Please take the bell from around my neck. If you ring it as hard as you can, I will be able to dance even faster."

The wolf took the bell and rang it as hard as he could. The shepherd heard the bell ringing and quickly sent his dogs to find the missing lamb. The barking dogs frightened the wolf away and saved the lamb's life.

II- Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow :-

(4m)

One hot afternoon, a thirsty fox was looking around for water. Soon he found an old well. He reached down to drink the water but he slipped and fell into the well.

No matter how hard he tried, he could not climb out of the well. It was too deep and the walls were too steep. Just then, a goat came by and looked into the well. He asked, "What are you doing downthere ?"

The fox suddenly thought of a plan to get out of the well. He called out to the goat, "You will only know when you come down here and have a drink. This is the best water I have ever tasted!"

The goat, who was thirsty, wasted no time in jumping into the well. As it bent down to drink the water, the fox quickly climbed onto the goat's back, hopped on his head, and jumped out of the well.

Looking down at the unhappy goat, the fox said, " My dear friend, next time, you should look before you leap!"
