BCM School, Sector 32A, Ludhiana, has added another feather to its cap by securing the Second Rank among schools across Tricity (Chandigarh, Mohali, Panchkula) and Ludhiana in the Times School Ranking 2026. The ranking was conducted as part of a comprehensive survey aimed at identifying leading educational institutions in the region.

Adding to this proud achievement, BCM Kindergarten has also earned recognition by securing the 5th position among Pre-Schools under the same survey.

The Times School Ranking Survey 2026 evaluated schools from Chandigarh, Mohali, Panchkula, and Ludhiana, assessing them on multiple parameters such as academic excellence, infrastructure, quality of teaching, innovation in learning, co-curricular opportunities, and overall student development. The survey reflects the commitment of schools towards providing a holistic learning environment for students.

The recognition stands as a testament to BCM School's consistent pursuit of excellence in education and its dedication to nurturing young minds with knowledge, values, and skills for the future. The achievement has been made possible through the collective efforts of the school management, dedicated faculty, enthusiastic students, and supportive parents.

Expressing gratitude on this proud occasion, the school administration acknowledged the unwavering trust of parents and the relentless dedication of teachers who continuously strive to uphold the institution's standards of quality education.

This milestone reinforces BCM School's vision of fostering holistic development and preparing students to excel in an ever-evolving world, while continuing to set new benchmarks in the field of education.
